

ePortfolio Australia - imagining new literacies

March 26 & 27, 2007
RMIT University, Melbourne Australia

Call for papers and presentations

Research papers of up to 3000 words will be considered for blind peer review until 19 January, 2007. Completed and original research papers in Microsoft Word format should be submitted electronically to the conference website <http://www.conftool.net/trilogy/> and click on the Melbourne conference.

Please use the following headings:

- Title
- Abstract
- Background
- Methodology
- Findings
- Conclusions
- References

Author and Contact information should be provided only on the first page. 30 minutes will be allowed for presentation of these papers.

B. Project reports and case studies of up to 5 pages (including images) will be considered for publication if submitted by 28 February 2007 in Microsoft Word format to the conference website.

Please use the following headings:

- Title
- Author and Contacts
- Context
- Purpose of the project
- Evidence
- Reflections and future directions.

30 minutes will be allowed for presentation of these reports

C. Technical demonstrations

- Title
- Contacts

Please send a description of the purpose and functions of the technology, and any special requirements.

30 minutes will be allowed for demonstrations

Enquiries: eportfolio@results.aust.com